

Adversity and Communication:

3 Steps to Effectively Connect With Your Clients

A small misunderstanding can directly affect your bottom line. Join us as we learn how to recognize when triggers from adverse childhood experiences can affect our personal and professional relationships. Discover how to respond instead of react through the power of awareness.

About The Speaker

Sue Mocker was born and raised in the Midwest and now resides in the Seattle area. She is the president of Hope Allowed and the founder of A Day of Brave events. Sue is the author of The Hope Factor and travels around the country spreading the message of hope as a professional speaker and hope consultant.

Her passion is to help women permanently break the cycle of abuse.

To learn more about Sue, visit www.HopeAllowed.com

Dinner & Networking

5:30pm - 7:00pm

Presentation by Sue Mocker

7:00pm - 9:00pm

Register online at ADayofBraveforBusiness.eventbrite.com

Tuesday, June 16 2015

Wellwood Farm
12410 N. 500 East Rd.
Gridley, Illinois 61744

Registration is FREE!

Contact

Jackie Wellwood
309.310.4862
jmwell@gridcom.com

Donations Accepted